

Post Graduate Diploma in Civil Society Politics

[Available only in 'On campus' Mode]

Credits:	32
Duration:	Two Semesters
Eligibility:	Graduate of any discipline

Objectives of the Course:

1. To familiarize students with the changing interface between the State and the Civil Society.
2. To help students to explore and critically analyze its impact on the nature of politics as well as its implications for various social sections.

Entry Behaviour:

1. The student needs to have some orientation towards basic issues in contemporary social and political issues at local, regional, national and international level.

Exit Behaviour:

1. The student is equipped to analyze independently in the capacity of a political analyst different variants of civil society activism around the globe.
2. The student is equipped to initiate or participate in the civil society activism as an activist.

Target:

- Journalists
- NGO workers
- Social / Political Activists
- Researchers
- Citizens

Scheme:

Semester I

	Subjects	Credits	Marks
1	Key Concepts	4	100
2	Indian Political System	4	100
3	Indian Administration	4	100
4	Patterns of Civil Society Activism	4	100
		16	400

Semester II

	Subjects	Credits	Marks
1	Society and Politics in India	4	100
2	People's Movements in India	4	100
3	Globalisation and Civil Society	4	100
4	Soft Skill Development	2	50
5	Project Report	2	50
		16	400